COLUMBUS, O., July 31 .- V. Wagner. German, of Morrow county, was executed at the Ohio penitentiary this morning for the killing of his brothermorning for the killing of his brotherin-law, Daniel Sheehan, on December 18, 1882. This was the first hanging to take place at the Ohio penitentiary under the new law requiring that all executions in the State shall take place at the prison. The trouble between Wagner and Sheehan was of long standing and of a family sature, and on the date named Wagner went to Sheehan's house and told him that he had come to kill and told him that he had come to kill him, and immediately drew a revolver and shot him, and fired again when he tried to escape. The trials were long and tedious, the Supreme Court affirming the judgment of the lower court, and the Cir-

M. G. WILSON. Proprietor, Formerly of Montvale and Tate Springs. In the fall of 1884 I was taken with a case of mainrial fever, which prostrated me both body and mind. I was drug ed after the old fashion with mercury and other wineral mixtures, but with me good results. My health was shattered and my energy gone. My legs and feet would swell, and I had what everybody thought was dropey. These symptoms alarmed me, and I was ready to grasp at any remedy suggosted. A friend advised me to try Switt's Specific. I precured three bottles and commenced its use. The swelling soon subsided. I have taken the three bottles, which have made a perfect cure, and I feel like a new man to-day. There never was a more meritorious medicine offered to suffering humanity. I has wrought wenders for me.
